Go to Rawley's Barber Shop if you want the Best Hair Tonic

It will bring hair back on bald heads and will keep the dandruff off. If you wish me to treat your hair I will do so, or will sell you the tonic so you can treat it at home. This tonic will restore gray hair back to the natural color. A trial will convince you.
 Money back if not satisfied.

Mr. D. A. Rawley, Cookeville, Tenn.
 Dear Sir:—In regard to your Hair Restorer, I take pleasure in stating that it has stopped my hair from coming out after a number of other remedies had failed. I have one-half one bottle yet, but use just enough to keep dandruff off my scalp now.

Bones!—T. L. Upton.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dietz, Jan. 12, 1915, a fine boy.

Jas. Ensor of Double Springs was in Cookeville Saturday.

Mrs. Sallie Holland returned to her home at Springfield Wednesday.

Criminal Court is in session this week with Judge Gardenhire on the bench.

The Ford Garage will have in a carload of cars next Monday. Notice adv.
 elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Uious Brown and children of Nashville, came up last Thursday to visit relatives and friends.

A BARGAIN—Be convinced by writing A. P. Welch, Monterey, Tenn., for cash prices on farm wagons. 2t

A big light has been erected on the flag pole at the top of the elevator and its rays reach out and light up wonderfully.

Williamr, Elrod & Maddux have somewhat to say to the public in their adv. on the last page. Read it and profit thereby.

We understand that the contract for the erection of the government building has been let and that work will commence soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Masters left for Selma, Ala., last Monday morning, where Mr. Masters has a position with a lumber concern.

Mrs. W. F. Ensor and son, David Dow, returned Wednesday, from an extended visit at Donelson, Nashville, Gallatin and Gordonsville.

Arise ye old bones and come to Cookeville.—T. L. Upton.

Mrs. Ed Warner left for Cookeville Thursday where she will spend several weeks with her husband, who holds a splendid position at that place.
 —Sparta Expositor.

Rev. A. J. Colie, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will preach Sunday morning, Jan. 25th on "Controlling Passions" and at the evening service the subject will be "Modern Gid-eons."

FOUND—Very nice ring. If you have lost one write, call or see Robert Harris, at Hoffmeister's Livery Stable, Cookeville, who will be glad to return it to the owner, upon proper identification.

Judge D. L. Lansdan, being unable to perform his duties during the present term of the Supreme Court owing to failing health, Gov. Rye has appointed Hon. Frank Panther of Sparta to serve in his stead, and this appointment seems to be generally satisfactory.

COMES TO COOKEVILLE

The Church of Christ at Cookeville has made arrangements for W. L.
 Karnes, of Portland, Tenn., to locate here and serve this congregation as a minister, preaching and teaching the bible. Bro. Karnes is an able man, who has the confidence and good will of his brethren wherever he has gone.
 He was for ten years one of the teachers in the Potter Bible College at Bowling Green, but for the last two years has devoted his time to evangelizing.

Bro. Karnes and his family will occupy the S. M. Young dwelling recently vacated by J. E. Stafford. He will preach here next Lord's day at 11:00 a. m. and 7 p. m. We are glad to welcome him as a citizen to Cookeville.

SEWING CIRCLE

The Sewing Circle was entertained by Mesdames Frank Collier and Al-good Carlen last Wednesday, at the home of the latter. A number of invited guests added to the pleasure of the afternoon.

The hostesses were assisted in receiving and serving by Misses Rosalind Algood and Virginia Richmond Carlen.

Mrs. H. T. Whitson entertained the club last Thursday afternoon with several visitors.

Next Wednesday the members are invited to meet with Mesdames Walter and Herbert Carlen at the home of the former.

DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT

Saturday night about 25 guests were delightfully entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hensley at their home on Cherry Street. After a nice program of music was rendered and several games indulged in, refreshments were served, the guests departed for their homes after spending a very pleasant evening.

ISAAC W. McCLUEN
 I. W. McCluen was born December 23, 1849, in Chester county, Pennsylvania, and died January 14th, 1915 two miles south of Cookeville. He has one brother and one sister now living; had three brothers gone to their reward before him. Mr. McClu-en moved to Ohio when he was 15 yrs. old; left Ohio, moving to Tennessee in 1886, in Morgan county; from there to Cookeville where he has been living for 12 years. His wife, Mary Mc-Cluen died Oct. 16, 1909 and he was buried by her side in the Cookeville cemetery.

No better Christians ever lived in Cookeville than Brother and Sister McCluen. She was a devoted Christian when they came to Cookeville, and he was converted about four years before he died. I was at the service when he was converted and we talked about religion many times after he was converted and he loved to talk on and about religion. He had never joined any church but his wife belonged to the Congregational church, and he said that he would join that church if there was any in this section as it was the church of his choice.
 His wife was sanctified and lived a wholly consecrated life full of love to all. There were nine children all of whom were present to see the father laid to rest, and the burial services concluded by Bro. J. F. Tinnon, pastor of the Methodist Church. The children were in different parts of the country, some in New York, some in California, but all got to Cookeville in time to be at the funeral of their father. They were a fine looking group of children, and their appearance showed that they had been raised by nice, clean parents. I do not know how many of them are Christians, but all ought to be. If they are not I hope that the scene they have just passed through will be a warning to all of them and that they will seek Jesus and accept him and be saved and ready to meet their parents in the sweet by and by. May the Lord bless the dear companion that is left lonely, and all of the rest is my prayer.
W. L. RAY.

HOME TELEPHONE CO.

Cookeville, Tenn., Jan. 16, 1915.—
 To the Stockholders of the Cookeville Home Telephone Company: This is to certify that I made a final settlement with the collector and Secretary J. N. King, of said Company on the 31st day of Dec. 1914 and taking all charges of rents, tolls and also stock certificates sold by him and charged to him by me in monthly settlements the full amount being $1978.05, and he has paid to me and I have given him credit by receipts to same amount of $1978.05 so the books of the company all show that every cent charged to the collector and secretary for the year 1914 has been paid over in full by him and on one final settlement of Dec. 31, 1914. I found that the Secty.
 J. N. King had deposited 90 cent. too much money of his own at one time which I paid back to him. The books are O. K. E. H. Buck, Treas.

BASKET BALL GAME

On last Friday evening, Jan. 15, the Dixie-High Co-Eds engaged in a lively game of basketball with the Gordons-ville-High Co-Eds, at the local hall.

In the first quarter of the game the Gordonsville girls took the lead, and it seemed for awhile that they would surely win the game, unless the Dixie-High girls brought considerable more vigor into play than they had thus far shown. When the game was fairly on, however, the Dixie-High team came with the necessary vim and not only put their opponents on the defensive, but by some fast, clever work weakened their guard, and consequently took the lead.

In the second half of the game the Gordonsville girls struggled hard to overcome Dixie-High's guard, but without success, and so once more going on the defensive, finally lost the game by a score of 7 to 13.

Both teams played an unusually fast, skillful and very interesting game, and the victorious team has no boast to make over the vanquished.

A good crowd witnessed the game and after paying the expenses a nice little sum was left in the treasury.

A return game will be played at Gordonsville as soon as the weather is permissible, as they have no hall there and must play in the open.

 ists establishments in the country. His territory is Tennessee between Nashville and Knoxville.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY
 The Woman's Missionary Society met on Monday afternoon with Mrs.
 A. M. Gibbs. There were several present in spite of the inclement weather; also a few visitors.

The meeting was opened with a song; after which the roll was called.
 As the president was absent no special business was brought before the society with the exception of dues paid in.
 During the social hour we were favored with some very pretty music rendered by Miss Flossie West and Miss Georgia Webb. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, and a most delightful hour was spent with Mrs. Gibbs. Supt. Publicity.

MULE DAY

Monday was the first mule day of the season when quite a crowd of farmers were in town and Grissim, Thomson & Taylor, of Lebanon, who were here bought a carload of mules.
 Grissim & Hearn, also of Lebanon, will be here Saturday the 23rd.

...THE... PIANO CONTEST

At the Cookeville Mercantile Company Closes

Saturday Night, Jan. 30th
At 10 o'clock

Below is given the standing of the Ten Leading Candidates up to Wednesday Morning, January 20th, which is the last count of the votes until the last and final count

Mary Frances Williams	-	49,100	Lola Poston	-	24,100
Shelie Officer	-	45,400	Mrs. Lucian Stanton	-	22,500
Edna Hill	-	43,800	Minnie Hunter	-	21,400
Violet Caruthers	-	27,400	Mrs. Lormon Myers	-	14,100
Jewel Julian	-	26,800	Jessie Mai Jackson	-	11,200

Not a single one of these ten contestants can afford not to get busy---exceedingly busy---and muster every vote possible.
 Think about it! A $250.00 Kimball Piano will go to the one who sleeps less, who works more, who is wide-awake and hustles for votes.

Now is the time to use your friends. They can pay cash and receive due bills for merchandise, thereby given you votes now and do their buying on the due bill later.

Here is wishing that every one of you may get it, but as this cannot be, we now and hereby extend to the lucky one our heartiest congratulations.
